The Crop Circle Oracle Cards, apart from presenting good pictures and memories of significant crop formations over the years, are also a really interesting and useful oracle. As a cropie who has followed a progression of cereological events for twenty years, I found that this oracle's creator, Joseph-Mark Cohen, has intuitively selected these power-pictures and given them a meaning and oracular significance that really works. This deck is well worth a try.

Especially since the crop formations have so much to do with the future, with humanity's potential, in distinction to the images derived from the past that prevail in many Tarot-style oracle decks. But there's something else here too: over the years I've often said that it's not just the remarkable formations and their shapes and designs which are significant. What's really significant is the powerful and invisible energy-fields within the formations, into which we step and in which we bathe when we enter them. But you don't have to go to a formation to partake of this, since these are energy-carrying symbols.

It's as if the inter-dimensional intelligences who have created the formations over the years have been inviting us into their own territory, their own worlds. Many people, when they first enter these things, remark that they feel as if they have come home - the formations awaken a deep memory, a taste of something we all know and remember deep in our souls, something to do with our origins and our ultimate direction of evolutionary travel. In this sense, Joseph-Mark has done a brilliant job, interpreting the subtle and yet distinct energy-flavours and threads of meaning in different crop formations which have plopped down before us over the years. So, well done, Joseph-Mark. I recommend these oracle cards. They're different, and they do something, and I have a feeling that the circle-makers are allowing something of themselves and their message to come through them. Palden Jenkins, Cornwall, UK. www.palden.co.uk

"The vast range of information shared through this oracle deck gives us a clear channeling of the majestic creation codes nested within these mysterious formations. Truly unique and vibrant in his delivery of this ancient / new language of Crop Circles, Joseph-Mark inspires us with teachings from the I-Ching, the Mayan Calendar the Kabbalah & likely the Circle-Makers themselves! My daughter Luminous uses the oracle deck with her young friends, exploring the meaning within the deck & intuitively interpreting what the sacred geometry is evoking. It has been a great educational tool for both of us. Thank you, Joseph-Mark for dedicating yourself to delivering to the public an awareness of the Cosmic & Universal Knowledge coded within these beautiful Crop Circles."

The link between the amazing crop circle designs and the human psyche is one that is readily apparent to almost all who have had any contact with this phenomenon. The crop circles are above all inspirational works of art and as such they stimulate a strong response in the unconscious mind via creativity, synchronicity and dreams. This attractive oracle deck seems to me to be a joyful and playful way of interacting with both the crop circle designs and our own unconscious - who knows where such a journey might take us?! The deck is lovingly produced on heavy card stock with stunning imagery by photographer Steve Alexander and the reverse of each card contains an assortment of mystical quotes, interpretations and connections by Kabbalist Joseph-Mark Cohen.
